The Berkeley Engineering Preview Day is designed for rising seniors who are interested in applying to Ph.D. programs in engineering.

Over the course of 3 days, participants will:
- Attend workshops on the graduate admissions and funding process and learn how to put together a competitive application to UC Berkeley
- Receive advice on maximizing their upcoming summer research opportunity
- Interact with current UC Berkeley graduate students
- Tour the Berkeley campus
- Airfare, accommodations and meals provided

Participants will receive ongoing advising from the Engineering Graduate Outreach office throughout the summer and admissions cycle.

Eligibility:
- Academic goal is a Ph.D. in an engineering discipline
- Intend to apply for graduate school this fall (2020)
- Minimum 3.5 GPA
- Must be a US Citizen or Permanent Resident

To apply:
- Complete the on-line application: forms.gle/FoUcxFuDVkv9DBiz7

Deadline: Monday, March 16, 5:00 p.m. PST

Contact: Meltem Erol, merol@berkeley.edu, 510-643-1743

For More Information: engineering.berkeley.edu/previewdays

Students traditionally underrepresented in engineering are strongly encouraged to apply.